Covenant
(For Participants in the Primary Course)

To the Director,
Hiroshima Peacebuilders Center

I hereby pledge to make my utmost effort to work in the field of peacebuilding in the future after completing the course as requirements for “The Program for Human Resource Development in Asia for Peacebuilding” organized by the Hiroshima Peacebuilding Center (hereafter HPC). I have also read and fully understood the Application Guidelines, and pledge the following:

1. To observe instructions and guidance by HPC, lecturers, instructors and any other persons in the position of instructing during the course, in order to achieve the goals of the program;
2. To respect the security situation, and to observe the laws of countries where the program is held, regulations set by HPC, regulations and standards of the institutions where the Overseas Attachment is held;
3. To follow instructions by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan in case of emergency whereupon suspension and/or cancellation of the Overseas Attachment may be deemed necessary;
4. To compensate, with designated insurance or other appropriate means, HPC or third parties for any damage caused intentionally or through negligence during the program;
5. To abstain from claiming against HPC or the HPC-related institutions for damages caused by unavoidable accidents such as natural or man-made calamities, traffic accidents, disease, crime, etc. during the program even after exhausting the designated insurance;
6. To abstain from engaging in activities concerning politics, proselytizing or personal gain while keeping a status of a HPC Program Associate;
7. To observe decisions by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan and HPC including a termination of the program in the case of violation of this covenant or any inappropriate conduct.
